You are encouraged to download objects, 3D print them, and spread the word. We spend dozens or sometimes even hundreds of hours these amazing objects for 3D printing. Please take the time to credit us when sharing our work. You can find our social media handles below, if you want to credit us that way, otherwise you can share pictures of 3D prints, comments, and messages directly from the object page.

Please share your work in progress or/and your finished model on my Facebook group:

We hope you enjoy your model. If you encounter any problems, please let us know. We really like seeing your finished model, that is why we create these models.
